Test of Knowledge on Teaching

BY CAMBRIDGE

LEARN AND CERTIFY IN CANADA YOUR ENGLISH SKILLS AS A TEACHER

TKT Teaching, by Cambridge

Montreal is recognized as the educational capital of Canada, and is the world's most recognized bilingual city for English and French. Montreal is also home to McGill University, ranked in top 30 in the World as well as Concordia University. Both are anglophone Universities.

Students participating in Canada BEST TKT program come here with the goal of certifying English as teachers, and the school we have chosen for you has the methodology of using a communicative approach: you will strive to combine both the academic development and practical use of the language. You will develop the four skills of speaking, listening, reading and writing, using contextualized activities, conversations, role playing and presentations.

Excursions to major tourist sites are included as part of this magnificent experience.

MINIMUM REQUIREMENTS:

B1 level, be 18+ years old, have a recognized certification as English teacher from your country of origin.

Our mission is to provide you with international education opportunities which have a positive impact in your professional, personal and academic life.
